

year round beauty
one memorable day

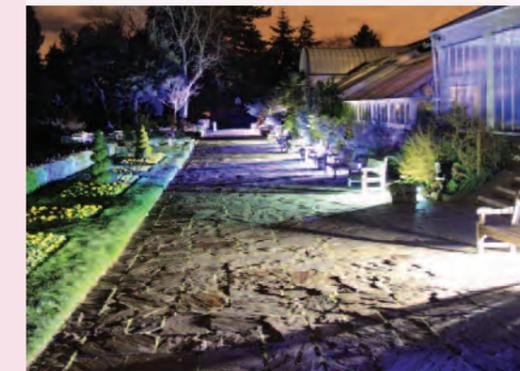

THE BIRMINGHAM
BOTANICAL GARDENS
EVENTS
TURN OVER A NEW LEAF

Sweep away with your beloved to a natural paradise where versatility meets romance to satisfy the head and the heart.

Courtesy of Prestige Photography

Birmingham Botanical Gardens has been welcoming visitors into a natural paradise for over a century. With a proud history and beautiful life abundant all around you, the Gardens offer a heady mix of grand heritage and new beginnings, just perfect for a magical wedding day. The Gardens are stunning all year round and your wedding day can be the beginning of a new tradition, as you and your beloved return to the place you were married, to watch the seasons unfurl.

top: The Glasshouses and gardens illuminated at night.
above: The Loudon Suite.
left: The Terrace Suite.
far left: The Bandstand, lawns and The Aviary.

Snowflake Viburnum
Viburnum plicatum tomentosum

spring's new beginnings

bursting with promise

Celebrate your new beginning in a wonderland of new life. In springtime the Gardens burst into life and the sky is a jubilee of music as young birds soar overhead. Enjoy the spectacle with an outdoor reception and from the marvellous views afforded by our three event spaces, each licensed for civil ceremonies.

right: The Terrace Suite.
far right: Subtropical Glasshouse.
below right: The Garden Suite.
below: The Bandstand.

Courtesy of Prestige Photography

The Terrace Suite
civil ceremony: 200 guests
dinner: 192 guests
dinner dance: 120 guests
reception: 350 guests

With three charming and versatile event spaces and a skilled team of event experts, we can tailor your wedding to your exact requirements, however specialised, with a level of service to exceed your expectations. If you can tear yourself away from the beautiful blossoming world outside, you'll find your venue of choice transformed into the wedding of your dreams, complete with the most delicious catering you can imagine.

Courtesy of Prestige Photography

Welcome the spring and your new life as a couple in your own verdant hideaway.

a dreamy summer's day
spent with the ones you love

Come together under a luminous blue sky in a paradise aflutter with butterflies and bright with sunshine. With a celebration in one of our welcoming event suites, your special day will be beautiful both inside and out. Choose between: our Victorian dining room the Loudon Suite, our grand and impressive Garden Suite, and the inviting setting that was once the Gardens' ballroom, the Terrace Suite.

Summer weddings in the Gardens call for al fresco fun.

With access to the Gardens from each of our suites, you can enjoy a sparkling reception in the sunshine, host a roaring barbecue on the terraces and capture your fondest memories in spectacular photos to treasure forever. Beautiful trees, blooming flowerbeds, the Victorian bandstand, and glittering fountain ensure that your backdrop is perfect from every angle.

top: The Loudon Suite.
centre left: The Conservatory and the Japanese Garden.
far left: The Bandstand.

golden autumn

resplendent with colour and passion

After summer slips away, the Gardens don their autumn finery and the world is painted gold. A colour palette of rich reds, fiery oranges and deep mahogany makes for a wedding of unparalleled sophistication. Your special day will be magical from beginning to end, from the moment your guests step into the colourful world until the sun goes down and you see the glasshouses lit up as bright beacons against the dark sky.

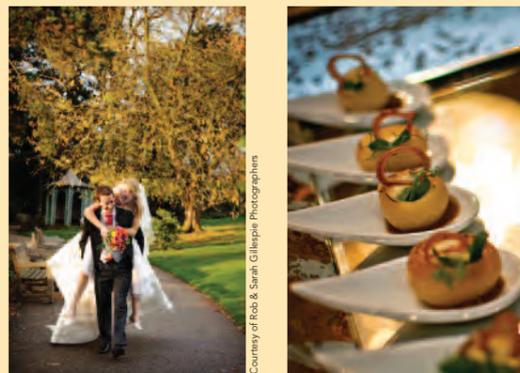

The Loudon Suite
civil ceremony: 60 guests
dinner: 60 guests
dinner dance: 60 guests
reception: 60 guests

Whichever space you choose for your wedding, you can be sure that you will be surrounded by beauty, immersed in tranquillity and treated to the most delicious wedding breakfast, canapé reception or delectable buffet, created by the skilled hands of our award-winning chefs. Those who seek an Asian feast will be well catered for by our expert partners who specialise in Asian cuisine.

above: The Conservatory.
left: The Terrace Suite.

Courtesy of Rob & Sarah Gillespie Photographers

Autumn is harvest time, celebrate and spoil your guests with a feast for all the senses.

time stops around you
on a winter's day

Winter is a magical time in the Gardens. Proud evergreens stand vibrant against a winter's sky, and frost creates an intricate lace filigree across lawns and flowerbeds. It's a breathtaking setting; the crisp clear skies of the afternoon and the hush and stillness of the evening will leave you spellbound. Your venue will nestle guests in a cosy haven, with panoramic views of the splendour that surrounds you.

Discover exquisite dishes befitting of this beautiful setting.

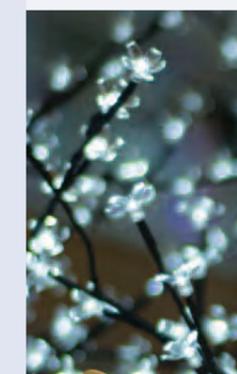

The Garden Suite
civil ceremony: 350 guests
dinner: 432 guests
dinner dance: 384 guests
reception: 500 guests

Courtesy of Jennifer Peill Photography

The graceful event spaces hidden within the Gardens are the perfect cosy getaway in the winter. Each suite is approached from one of the spectacular glasshouses and offers access to the Gardens, so you'll be in stunning surroundings whatever the weather. Steal away with your beloved for some private moments; you will feel as if the world belongs to you and you alone.

above left: The Bandstand.
centre left: The Garden Suite.

Flowering Dogwood Tree
Cornus florida

Westbourne Road
Edgbaston Birmingham B15 3TR
0121 450 4607
botanicalevents@ampersandcatering.co.uk
birminghambotanicalgardens.org.uk/venue

THE BIRMINGHAM
BOTANICAL GARDENS
EVENTS
TURN OVER A NEW LEAF