

Collect the colours of summer

From the pink petal of a rose to a bright green leaf, there's summer colour all around you. Can you find things from the natural world around the Gardens that match the colours on our colour wheel? See what petals and leaves you can find on the floor and have fun with the colours you find!

