

Birmingham Botanical Gardens

Long Walk

Use the map to find the numbered wooden posts. The answer to the question can be found somewhere near the post. (You do not need to leave paths to find posts or answers.)

24. You are close to Forrest Walk here. Who was this walk named after?

13. What is the main type of flower grown in this area?

36. What type of grass plant is the nearby maze grown out of?

40. The Urban Garden near here grows lots of edible plants. Which ones can you see today?

18. Who is this garden named after? Can you see why?

11. What sports could you play near here? What is special about these courts?

9. When was the Rock Garden completed?

Birmingham Botanical Gardens

Long Walk

Use the map to find the numbered wooden posts. The answer to the question can be found somewhere near the post. (You do not need to leave paths to find posts or answers.)

28. The Teulon Cottage was built in 1847. Can you name an original feature of the cottage and a modern addition?

6. How many little playhouses are there here?

3. Name our four main Glasshouses:

5. There is a Giant Redwood tree nearby - the largest and tallest tree species on Earth. How is the bark different from surrounding trees?

8. How many sides does our Bandstand have? What shape is this?

Birmingham Botanical Gardens

Long Walk - Map

